

Make-a-Myth

What's your adventure?

Hero's name: _____
Adjective 1: _____
Adjective 2: _____
Name of a Place: _____
Noun 1: _____
Noun 2: _____
Noun 3: _____

Noun 4: _____
Noun 5: _____
Noun 6: _____
Sport: _____
Favorite food: _____
Favorite Way to Relax:

Once Upon A Time....

There was a hero named (hero name) and they lived in a(n) (adjective) town in (place). They had a very strange ability; they could always find exactly where they were going.

One day, a horrible (noun 1) fell from the sky and onto the town and started ripping up buildings, starting fires, and throwing (noun 2). Like most people, (hero name) ran away, traveling deep into the forest and away from their town.

(hero name) was very cold and very tired in the woods alone. So they decided to use their special ability to find exactly where they were going and decided to go to the nearest house.

The nearest house happened to belong to an (adjective 1) (noun 3) named Jeff. Being a wise old sort, Jeff saw the potential in young (hero name) and began to train them so they could defeat the monster. Jeff was a magician, a swordmaster, and an expert in (favorite sport). (hero name) would be ready to serve up that monster-like (favorite food)-flavored ice cream in no time.

After a week of intense sword fighting, magical training, and (favorite way to relax), (hero name) was ready. Sword blazing with magical (noun 4), (hero name) strolled into town ready to fight the horrible (noun 5). Imagine their surprise when (hero name) saw the horrible monster was crying in the (adjective 2) rubble of their town.

(hero name), wary of a trap, lowered their sword and asked the monster why it was so upset. The monster answered, "Well, a week ago, I fell out of the sky and landed here. Now, I don't know how to get home."

(hero name) thought about it and thought about it. They could use their special power to send the monster home. But the monster had ripped up buildings, and started fires, and even thrown (noun 6)s!

(hero name) had to decide what to do.

What do you think (hero name) should do?